Statement of Personal Responsibility / Hold Harmless Clause:

I understand that I am making a fourteen week commitment to this group. I also understand that I may experience uncomfortable personal material and a wide range of emotions during this process. As a result, I may experience resistance to coming to the group and I agree to show up with (or without) my resistance, in the service of my personal growth.

I understand the use of alcoholic beverages and non-prescription drugs will very likely distort my experience. Therefore, I agree not to attend the group under the influence of the above substances.

I declare I am responsible for my own actions during the group with Terry Hatcher, and that Terry Hatcher and the owners of the property where the group is held, do not assume responsibility for incidents or accidents to any individual.

I recognize that Terry Hatcher, Ph.D., is a highly trained specialist in this Expressive Art Method and she does not recommend group participants attempt to lead groups or workshops in this method without sufficient training, due to the possible misuse of a powerful psychological tool.

Confidentiality: I recognize that participant's experiences and processes during this group are to remain confidential.

I am in agreement with the above statements.
